

OUR LADY

STABAT MATER

Attributed to Jacopone da Todi, 13th century

The sequence of Our Lady of Sorrows — first stanza

LATIN

Stabat Mater dolorosa iuxta crucem lacrimosa, dum pendebat Filius. Cuius animam gementem, contristatam et dolentem, pertransiuit gladius.

ENGLISH

At the cross her station keeping, stood the mournful Mother weeping, while her Son was hanging there. Through her soul, in anguish groaning, sorrowful and deeply moaning, went the sharp and piercing sword.

Amen.
